Wessex Hall Accommodation

Reading University is one of the finest Universities in the South East of England. The attractive and scenic campus grounds are home to a wealth of facilities including – Halls of residences with single study bedrooms, tennis courts, indoor sports centre, all weather flooded astroturf pitch and café and recreational facilities. The busy commuter town of Reading is only a 25 minute walk from the University accommodation, with regular buses operating from outside the college.

The excellent sports facilities make Reading University an ideal centre for students wanting to enrol in our English plus sports courses (Basketball, Horse Riding, Dance). It is also home of the Ardmore Football Academy, which attracts groups and individuals from all over the world each summer.
