Stonyhurst College

Stonyhurst College can trace its history back to the 16th Century when this stunning building was a family home. The College is now a Grade I building, listed by English Heritage and is located in picturesque surroundings of a Grade II park and garden – with stunning views of ornamental lakes! There is a strong sense of history and tradition at the school – with guided public tours of the house and garden being conducted throughout the year.

The College is situated a few miles from the town of Clitheroe in Lancashire and only about 30 minutes from the busy town of Preston. Stonyhurst is surrounded by breathtaking countryside and there is easy access to Manchester airport, railway stations and main motorways. Stonyhurst is the home to the Ardmore Rugby Academy which attracts individuals and groups from around the world during the summer.
